

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

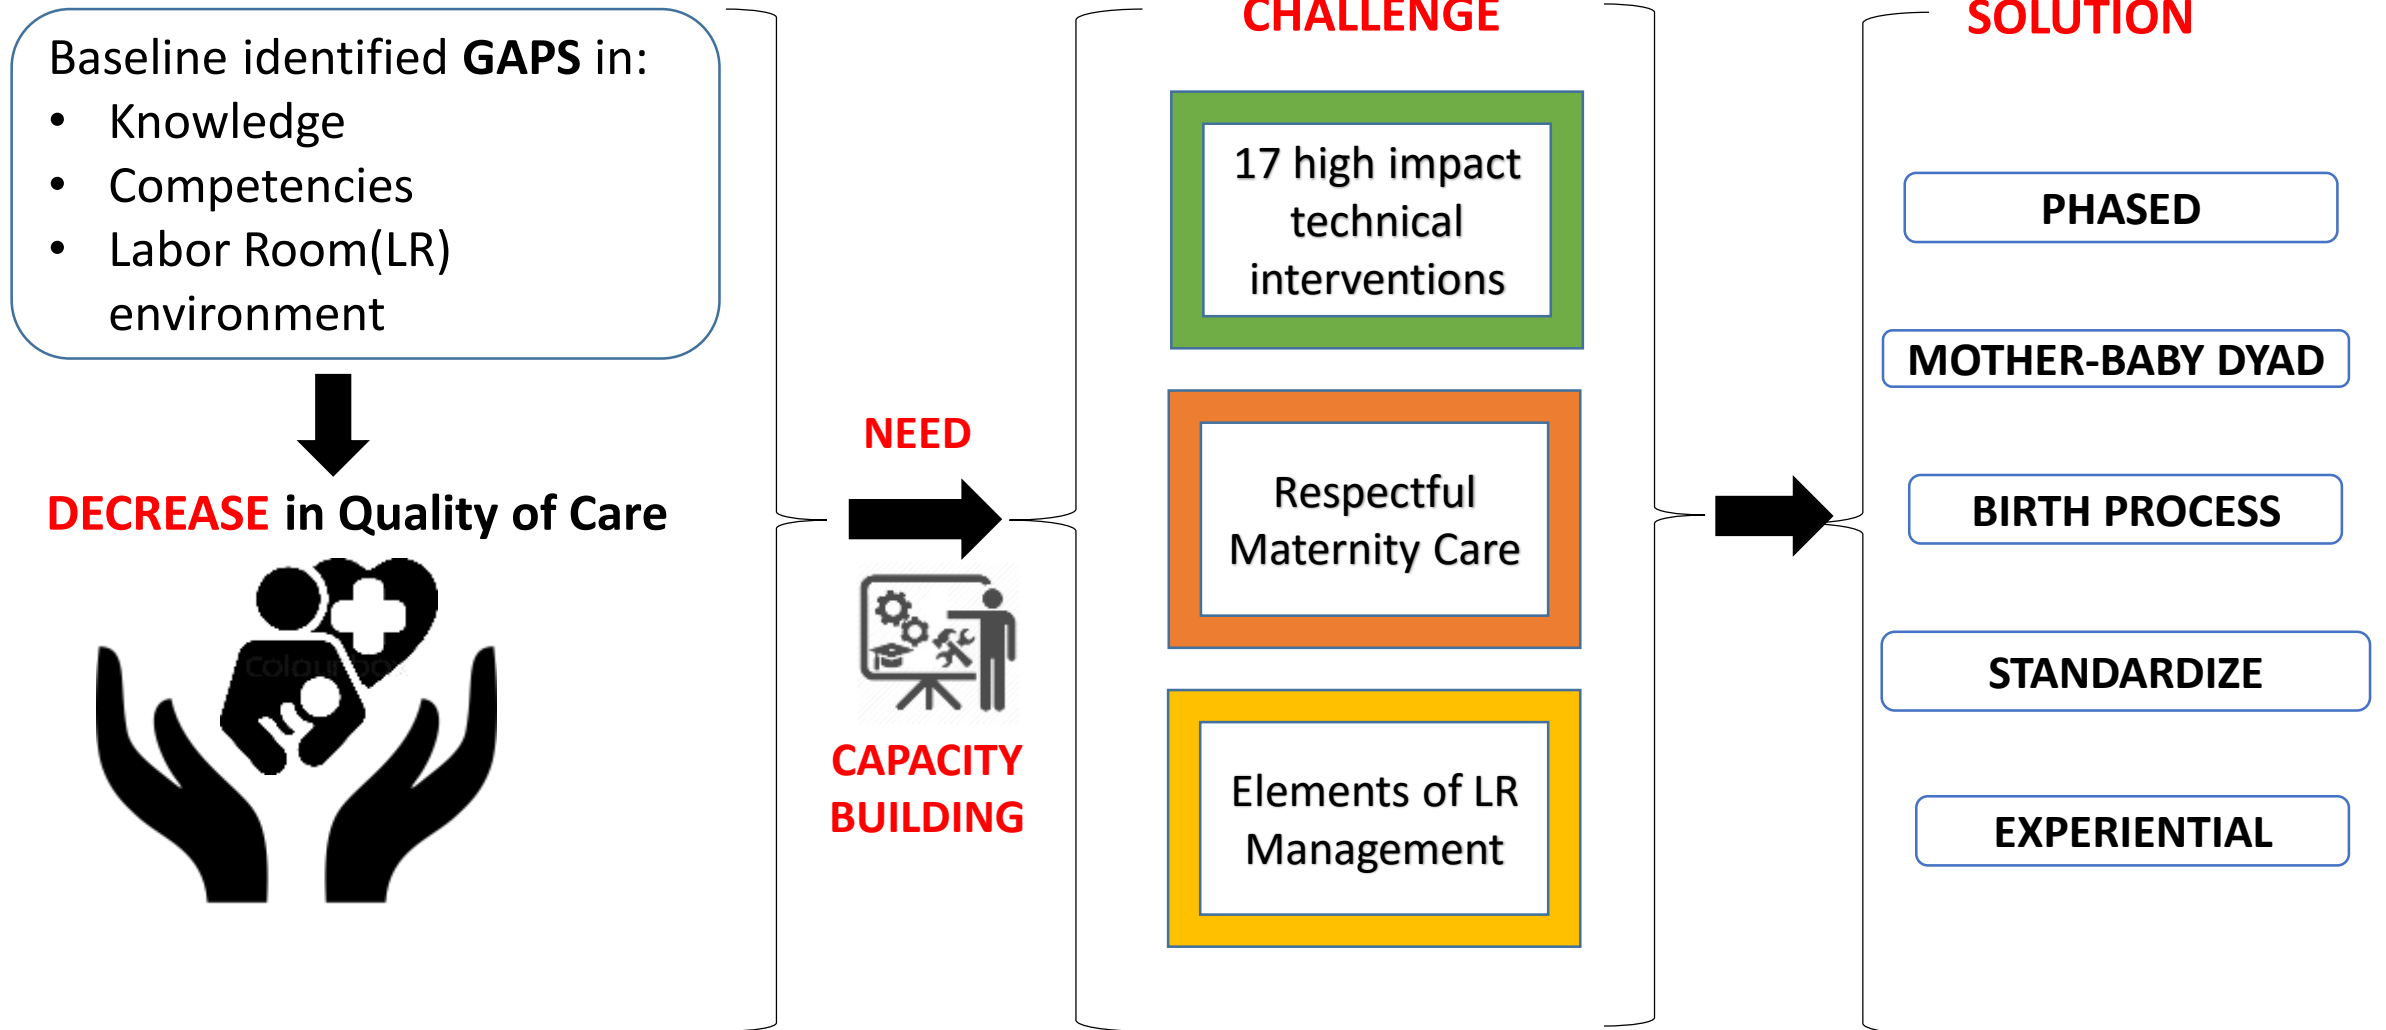

Experiential training to improve quality of care for mothers & newborns at the time of birth

Presenting Author: Geeta Verma

Co-Authors: Devina Bajpayee, V. Sridhar, Savitri Ramaiah, Anurag Joshi, Chitra Rathi, Sukriti Gangola, Krithika Murali, Rajeev Gera, Gunjan Taneja, Sachin Gupta

VRIDDHI: Scaling up RMNCH+A Interventions (www.rmncha.in)

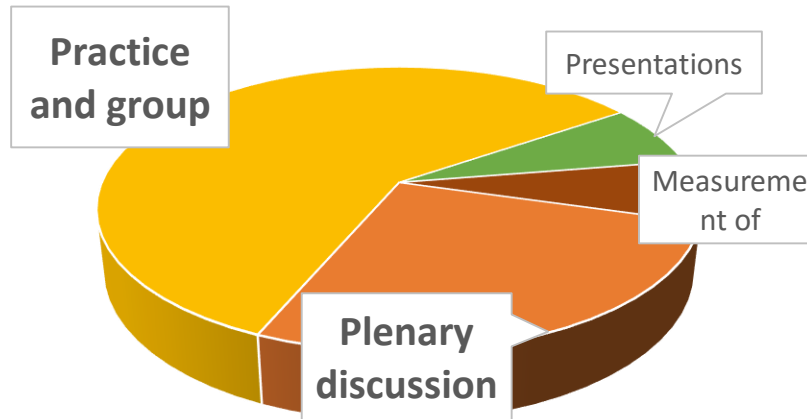

Context

Participant Centered Experiential Training

Mannequins

Simulations

Energizers

Non-threatening

Trainer to participant 1:5

The Approach

PRE-TRAINING: Design & Planning

Package

Facilitators

TRAINING : Experiential, Participant centered

Training

Onsite Training

3 months

POST-TRAINING: Support

Mentoring

Performance Review

9 months

ROLL OUT

141

High case load facilities

26

High Priority
Districts

REACH

1446

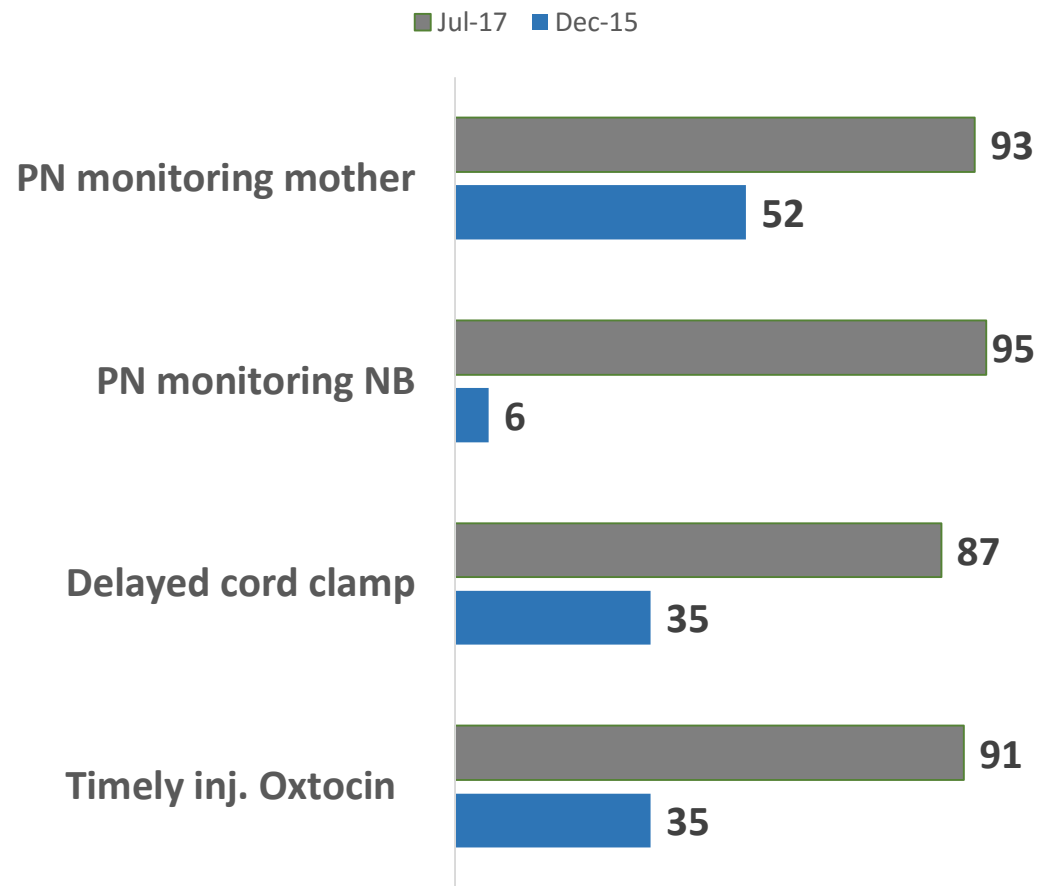

Service Providers
Trained

2,00,000

Annual Cohort of Pregnant
Women & Newborns

Results and Learning

Change in practices %

IMPROVED Quality
of Care

- Experiential training helps to translate learning into practice
- Standardized package for easy scale up
- Introduced in additional 30 districts
- More details at www.rmchna.in